DEDICATION

MRS. VERNA K. FOWLER

In the class room she teaches us independence of thought; on the campus she set an example of hard work; wherever she is, she stands for integrity of character. For these qualities and for her friendship to the students and services to our school, the staff of the 1949 Twig dedicates this volume to, Mrs. Verna K. Fowler.

CLASS POEM

UNITED

As a unit we shall stand,
But by division we always fall
With hearts together, hand in hand
We leave our school, our best and all.

Time shall pass, but memories live
Of joys, sorrows, smiles, and tears,
All of which our souvenirs give
And tell of our past pleasant years.

So now, to you, dear Fair Grove,
To our principal and teachers too,
We Seniors of '49, leave our love
And thanks as reminders of us to You.

SENIOR DIARY

Whew! We're through! Twelve years of hard work and loads of fun, twelve years of growth and development in the ways of the world that have gone by, never to be re-lived.

As we dig up the past, memories force our minds way back to our Freshmen days. To some, this was the beginning of another year of school, but to forty-four boys and girls who wandered around in the hall looking for Mrs. Grubb's ninth grade room, it was something confusing and exciting. This was our first day of high school and as we recall, we loved it.

Later, when we became organized, we elected class officers. They were: President, Seibert Lamb; Vice-President, Jackie Beck; Secretary, Bobbie Everhart; Treasurer, Bobby Gordon. The girl from our class to play basketball was Earline Miller. The boys were Bobby Gordon and Carl Wray. Bobbie Everhart was elected cheerleader. We will never forget the fun we had, but at the end of the year we all looked forward to being Sophomores.

Sophomores, we were beginning to realize just what high school would mean to us and finally learning how to face the following years, with Mrs. Grubb again to guide us along. Several of our class had dropped out of school leaving us with thirty-five students. We were represented in many activities. Class officers were: President, Seibert Lamb; Vice-President, Joe Craddock; Secretary, Kelly Burr; Treasurer, Jackie Beck. At the end of the year, we gave a party in Mrs. Grubb's honor since we would soon become Juniors and she would not be our teacher again.

Another year went by, we became Juniors and were assigned to the home room of Mrs. Fowler. Our class officers were: President, Seibert Lamb; Vice-President, Kelly Burr; Secretary, Dorothea Scarlette; Treasurer, Edwin Kennedy. This proved to be a busy year. Marshals were selected, class rings ordered, basketball games, a Junior play and the last, but far from least, the Junior-Senior Banquet, held April 9th in the Cavalier Grill in the Reynolds Building in Winston-Salem.

The fall of '48 came like a thunder-bolt and with it the realization of our long cherished dreams. Seniors at last. Twenty-one entered the senior room of Mrs. Ivey. Class officers were: President, Seibert Lamb; Vice-President, Kelly Burr; Secretary, Mollie Overcash; Treasurer, Barbara Harris. These days will linger with us forever. We are the dignified Seniors! Boy, and do we love it! Soon our school days will just be memories, with souvenirs of old F. G. Echos, and our beloved Twigs. We will treasure these and think of them as the best years of our lives.

Bobbie Everhart.

PROPHECY

Hello folks! . . . This is Joyce Beane, your daily news reporter, flashing to you news, national and international, and brought to you daily through the courtesy of Jones Dairy owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones (the former Miss Dot Scarlette). For the best grade of products to be found, buy at Jones Dairy. Friendly workers to give you best of service.

And now in the news . . . Flash!

A bulletin just came in from Moscow: Mr. Bobby Myers, U. S. Ambassador, states that General Leon Beusse has just arrived by plane to establish a military academy. With him are his two private secretaries, Miss Nellene Cornelison, and Miss Earlene Miller. Also with him is Professor Kelly P. Burr, who is to teach there.

Flash . . . Mollie Overcash, Barbara Harris, and Ernest Lambeth, the three famous stars of "John's Other Mother-In-Law," will leave New York City, New York, today for a visit to their ole' home town, Thomasville, North Carolina. They will board the Southbound Southern at 6:45 this evening. Engineer Seibert Lamb will see that their trip is comfortable, safe, and pleasant.

Flash . . . Richard Blackburn, noted author of "Small Town Gal," has arrived in Hollywood for the opening night of the picture made from his book. Distinguished film producer, Carl Wray, was there to welcome him along with a host of reporters. Among them was the reporter who succeeded Heddy Hopper, Nancy Shuler.

Flash . . . The Duke Blue Devils will meet the Wake Forest Deacons, in a basketball game tonight. Coach Bobby Gordon of the Blue Devils said he felt this was to be his hardest game of the season, "But," he stated "my boys are ready."

Flash . . . Austin Parrish, and George Crump, and all the gang of the "Tar Heel-Hill Billys" are scheduled for a big hill-billy jamboree and square dance in the F. G. H. gym, Friday, October 14, at 8:00 o'clock. There will be no admission charges as the two boys previously mentioned are former students of this institution. The public is cordially invited, for fun and frolic.

Flash . . . Bobbie Everhart is to make her debut with the Metropolitan Opera tonight at 8 p.m. Be sure to listen to the star who'll make radio more famous.

Flash . . . The famous air hostess, Jackie Beck is scheduled to arrive here today for a rest with her family, after the brilliant feat of heroism shown by her in the airplane crash in the Blue Ridge Mountains. The plane will be piloted by J. H. Snyder, who so capably brought the flaming plane to the ground, without any serious injuries.

And now as an added social announcement, Miss Jo Ann Blair, a former classmate, has asked me to announce that all her friends are cordially invited to her marriage to James Edwards, on Friday evening at 8 p.m., in the Fair Grove Methodist Church. We wish her all the happiness and success in the world.

And now folks this is your ole' newscaster signing off for today, and until tomorrow, don't forget, for strong healthy bodies drink plenty of milk, and where can you find better milk than at the Jones Dairy. Bye' now.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, the class of 1949, the minority of sound mind and the majority being otherwise, on the 6th day of June, in the year of our Lord, do declare this writing to be our last will and testament, hereby making null and void all other writings heretofore made by us, do hereby will and bequeath all property, real and personal, to be bestowed as follows:
Item 1: We leave all our good times and our sponsor; also our capable teachers to the Junior Class.

Item 2: To the Sophomore Class, we will our books, pencils, and all of our English classes as it is too late for us to use them.

Item 3: To the Freshmen Class, we leave our ability to study and to be in the right place at the wrong time and vice-versa.

Item 4: Individually we would like to leave the following:

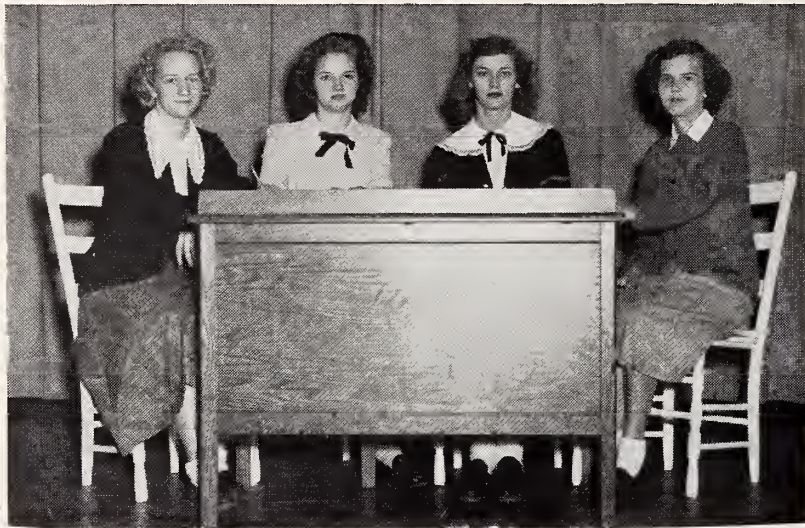

- (a) Earline Miller's basketball ability to Peggy Wright.
- (b) Barbara Harris's three study halls to Edith Bevan in case she needs them.
- (c) Nancy Shuler's Beta membership to Bobby Martin.
- (d) Jo Ann Blair's quietness to Bunk Kennedy.
- (e) Bobbie Everhart's position as cheerleader to Colleen Beck.
- (f) Bobby Myer's motorcycle thrills and spills to Leeroy Coggins.
- (g) Richard Blackburn's love for library books to John Watford.
- (h) George Crump's "Beat Up" typewriter to Billy Reece.
- (i) Carl Wray's nickname (Crushie) to anyone that can live up to it.
- (j) Jo Ann Blair's long hair to Imogene Rudisell.
- (k) "Dot" Scarlette's blonde beauty to Hazel Sowers.
- (l) Kelly Burr's height to John Collett and Seibert Lamb's height to Jo Ann Fouts.
- (m) "Sheepe" Lamb's wittiness to Leeroy Coggins.
- (n) Bobby Myer's bashfulness to Donald Dorsett.
- (o) Mollie Overcash's ability to skip classes to Carol Myers.
- (p) Edwin Kennedy's bus to James Holshouser.
- (q) Leon Beusse's ability to get to school on time to Myra Bodenheimer.
- (r) Dorothea Scarlette's face and figure to Jo Ann Smith.
- (s) Bobby Gordon's basketball suit to Junior Nance.
- (t) "Tweedle" Lambeth's name to Richard Beck.
- (u) The Senior Class wills the hope for a better English Class to Mrs. Clarence Fowler.
- (v) Earline Miller and Nellene Cornelison's names "Enny" and "Nenny" to the two Mrs. Fowlers.
- (w) Joyce Beane wills her flirty eyes to Pauline Rothrock.
- (x) Jackie Beck's office of Beta Presidency to Evelyn Suggs, and her place on the cheering squad to Bernice Beck.
- (y) Our appreciation and thanks to Mrs. Clyde Fowler for helping us have one of the best annuals in Fair Grove History.
- (z) Our gratitude to the faculty and our appreciation to Mr. Kearns in hopes that our success will be as great as his.

Signed and testified on this Sixth Day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-nine, by:
